

THE UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA
OFFICE OF STUDENT CONDUCT
 Division of Student Affairs
SUMMER 2013 REPORT

I. INTRODUCTION

The Office of Student Conduct (OSC) is responsible for investigating alleged violations of the Code of Conduct (Code) and for coordinating the conduct process. Summary statistical reports are generated for public review. This report reflects data for the time period of May 13, 2013-August 11, 2013 (Summer 2013).

II. CONDUCT CASE REFERRALS

The OSC receives referrals for conduct action from a variety of sources. Referrals with sufficient information to indicate a potential violation of the Code are assigned to a conduct officer for further investigation and eventual resolution.

ORIGIN OF CASES REFERRED
DURING SUMMER 2013

UGA Police	51
ACC Police	37
University Housing	8
Georgia State Patrol	6
Faculty/Staff	5
UGA Student	1
Other Law Enforcement Agency	1
TOTAL	109

III. CONDUCT CASE RESOLUTIONS

Conduct cases are not necessarily resolved in the semester in which they were referred to the OSC. Statistics in the remaining portion of the report reflect data for cases that were resolved during Summer 2013 regardless of when they were referred (i.e. some cases were referred during Spring 2013).

Cases are resolved in one of three ways: no action, informal resolution, or formal resolution. A conduct officer may find that there is not enough information to indicate that the student has violated the Code, resulting in a no action resolution. Cases are resolved informally when the student accepts responsibility for violating the Code, agrees with the sanctions assigned by the conduct officer, and waives the right to a formal hearing and appeal. If a student disputes involvement in a violation of the Code or does not agree with the sanctions assigned by the conduct officer, the case is resolved through a formal hearing.
